PERMITTING

Permits, planning and licensing, done faster.

Automate your permits, licenses and planning processes with one easy-to-use solution. With Citywide Permitting, you can save time, improve data management and upgrade the applicant experience.

Centralize your records

Manage permits, license and planning documentation, as well as associated costs in one platform. Bulk upload information to improve productivity.

Schedule inspections and pre-consultations

Schedule and track inspections, pre-consultations and view historical information online. Easily attach notes, files and pictures for each application.

Customize your workflows

Create custom work fields and notifications. Adjust your workflows and implement mandatory input fields per application type.

Manage all fees and payments

Handle fees, development charges and payment activities in one location.

Map everything online

See the big picture with GIS mapping. View all permit, licensing and planning details on an interactive map.

Build tailored reports

Create standard or custom reports by permit types and status for easy data retrieval and information analysis.

Say goodbye to spreadsheets

Automate your processes to save time and money.

Customize building and non-building related permits, including road closures, special events and more. Manage permit requests, reviews, approvals, fees and inspections. Visualize permits and inspections with interactive maps and GIS functions.

Enhanced Features

Show your citizens you care

Allow your citizens to easily submit applications online with the Citizen Portal. Use permit reference numbers so you and your citizens can track applications.

Upgrade your in-field activities

View permit details and conduct inspections on the Permits Mobile app so you never miss a beat.

“ The system change has been a really positive experience for staff. We are noticing our processes are a lot less time consuming and we are using less clicks and manual work to get the exact information we need. ”

- PSD Citywide client
